HARRISON'S REQUEST FOR HEARING
ON CROSS-MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND RELATED OBJECTIONS

Plaintiff, Harrison Company, L.L.C. (“Harrison”) requests an oral hearing on the parties’ cross-motions and related objections to evidence offered in support (Doc. 131 and Doc. 136). If the Court has any question regarding the motions or any objection (or believes additional discussion or explanation would help resolve the objections or the cross-motions), Harrison believes an on oral hearing would be an efficient manner to address them. Harrison’s counsel can be available on a date in mid-June, or at any other time convenient to the Court’s calendar. As explained in the certificate of conference, the parties conferred and did not agree on either the time or necessity of a hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David L. Swanson
